

MAURIZIO GALANTE
HAUTE COUTURE

Paris 6 July 2020

Entitled A PROMISE, Maurizio Galante's haute couture collection pays tribute to those precious moments of anticipation that precede a special encounter or event. Moments during which everything seems possible, with unlimited potential, when we envision with delight what is about to unfold. These magical moments of preparation are characterized with particular quality; time passes slowly, leisurely, yet feels very brief.

A series of outfits comes to life, conveying the pleasure and delicacy of such precious instants. Iconic model Amalia Viarelli, a timeless yet contemporary woman, enlivens this collection with gesture and pause. As in a poem by Marina Tsvétaïeva, in which emotions are strung one by one, like pearls of a fantastic necklace, the garments appear one after another.

Closely fitted volumes for short dresses, comprising metres of silk cut on the bias, give way to pleated capes and kaftans made from thousands of fabric elements. Silhouettes created by emotions and memories; a nostalgic ode to bygone shapes.

Reminiscent of flowing architecture, constructed with soft and delicate materials, Maurizio Galante 2020 collection tells of lightness, elegance, and inner strength.

Colours: black, ink, purple, lilac.
