

November 19 to 26 2011
SIEM REAP - CAMBODIA

The first international photo festival in Southeast Asia

2011 Program

Like the previous editions, the 7th edition of the Angkor Photo Festival does not have a themed program, but proposes to discover - or rediscover - artists from all over the world. Consistent with the festival's mission of highlighting emerging Asian photographers, 70 of the 110 photographers exhibiting in 2011 are from Asia.

The Angkor Photo Festival is a place to meet, connect and dialogue with friends and fellow photography professionals.

The 2011 program of 10 outdoor and indoor exhibitions and 8 evenings of outdoor slideshows is curated by :

- > Françoise Callier, the Program Coordinator of the Angkor Photo Festival, in consultation with a 9-member international committee.

Each year, the festival dedicates 2 evenings of slideshows as a « Carte Blanche » to two well-known figures in photography . Our 2 invited curators for 2011 are :

- > Wang Xi / Curator - China
- > A duo of personalities in the international field of photography:
Sylvie Grumbach / Director of the international press relations agency 2e Bureau - France
Jean-Yves Navel / Founder member and Director of the Angkor Photo Festival - France

An annual free photo workshop for the children of Anjali House

The Anjali Photo Workshops was initiated in 2005 by Magnum photographer Antoine d'Agata during the first Angkor Photo Festival. After this first experience, the festival set up Anjali House - which is now a registered Cambodian NGO providing food, shelter and education for more than 100 under-privileged children.

During the annual 10-day workshop, and thanks to Canon support, Anjali kids work for a week with young photographers from the region who volunteer their time to tutor the children.

Coordinator : Sohrab Hura, India

Tutors : Kim Hak, Cambodia / Sofian Hamid, Malaysia / Tanzim Ibne Wahab, Bangladesh / Sean Lee, Singapore / Mansi Midha, India / Yen Nie, Malaysia / Sheila Zhao, China and participation of Paolo Patrizi, Italy.
