WINNER OF THE PHOTOGRAPHY PRESS ZOOM AWARD

Sébastien Hameline

sponsored by Guy Boyer, chief editor of CONNAISSANCE DES ARTS

Sébastien began taking photographs at the age of twelve. Born in a family of artists with a passion for photography, he developed his skill at the weekend or at night, wandering the streets and parks in Paris. He published a few pictures in the French press when he was still at high school. In parallel with his film studies at the Sorbonne, he began to exhibit in Parisian art venues, and was given an award by the Institut Géographique de Paris.

After presenting his Masters thesis on Hayao Miyazaki, Sébastien continued his photographic work in America and Asia, along with several film projects.

WINNER OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC ZOOM AWARD

A forty-year old Greek professional photographer based in Paris, Kyriakos Kaziras is a specialist in nature photography (animals, ethnographic work and landscapes). For him, travel provides the opportunity for encounters with native peoples and animals living in the wild.
